

ADVANCING WOMEN IN ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY PROJECT WRAP-UP: BECAUSE DIVERSITY DOES BETTER

Our Panelists

Theresa McCurry

CEO, ASTTBC

Barbara Dobson

Principal Research Associate, SRDC

Debbie Pearmain

Human Resources Consultant
and Owner OneStopHR

Lesley MacDonald

Employee Engagement and HR Planning, BC Hydro

OUR INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP WILL EXPLORE:

Project research findings with promising practices for various inclusion and diversity initiatives

Panelist discussion with examples of ways to change an organizational culture, implement successful processes and persuade employers to address inclusion and diversity

Ready-made resources, information and tips to implement in your organization

Applied Science Technologists and Technicians of BC (ASTTBC) is committed to growing participation of diverse population in applied science and engineering technology through greater shift toward workplace inclusivity, collegial support, skill investment, and stretch assignments.

ADVANCING WOMEN IN ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

DECEMBER

08

WEDNESDAY

8:00AM - 9:30AM (PST)

REGISTER

Use this link to register for the webinar
please save the email link you receive in your calendar

ASTTBC
REGULATING TECHNOLOGY PROFESSIONALS

Applied Science Technologists and Technicians of BC (ASTTBC) is committed to increasing the participation of women in engineering and technology through recruitment, retention and career development strategies.

Canada

Funding provided through the Canada-British Columbia Labour Market Development Agreement.